

The background of the cover features a detailed line drawing of a pine branch. The branch has several clusters of long, thin pine needles. A small bird is perched on a higher branch in the upper left. A single pine cone hangs from a lower branch in the center. The title 'Pine Knot' is written across the middle of the cover in a stylized, hand-drawn font that incorporates the branch and needle motifs into the letters.

Class Will

We, the Senior Class of 1953 of Askov High School considering the uncertainty of life and certainty of death and being now of sound mind and memory (we hope) do make, publish and declare this our last will and testament.

Jointly we will to the Senior Class of 1954 our athletic ability, our old textbooks and the remarks in them and above all our class unity to bring them through the Senior year with flying colors.

I, Darlene Ruth "Dar" Ball, will my ability to get out of town boys to Bonnie Pearson who really doesn't need it. My horse tail I will to Carol Meyers to use for awhile.

I, George Robert "CheeWee" Clegg, will my superfluous vocabulary to Charlene Lundwall, in hopes it will help her in arguments as much as it has me. To Marvin Olesen I leave my basketball suit in hopes he will "fill" the position.

I, Lois Ann "Kaiser" Fraser, refuse to leave anything, who knows I might not even leave.

I, Winston Eugene "Winse" Gross, leave no regrets that I am graduating. To Jack Pearson I leave my position as pitcher of the baseball team in hopes they will win some games.

I, Virginia Jean "Gini" Jensen, will my high scores in bowling to Velma Jensen so she will become the world's champion bowler of the women's league.

I, Audrey Marie "Red" Johnson, will my red hair and freckles to Rose Ann Ketchum just for a change.

I, Lorraine Jeanette "Lenny" Knapp, will my ability in declams to Ardyce Henricksen in hopes it will help give her top honors next year.

I, Jens Henry "Lars" Larsen, will my quiet class room manner to give the teachers a break next year.

I, Lorraine Christine "Lug" Lund, will my glamorous pictures to Joyce Larsen so her billfold will be as interesting as mine.

I, Joyce Elaine Lunde, will my vim, vigor and vitality in cheerleading to Karen Krogh and Delores Hansen to carry on for next year.

I, Wallace Fredoline "Wally" Martinek, will my bundle of brains to Allan Plaisted in hopes he will use it to his best advantage. My bashful ways with girls goes to Ronald Clark.

I, Doris Rose Meyers, will my ability as a librarian to Gloria Anderson to keep the library in somewhat decent order.

I, Warren Lee Nedegaard, will my meatbox to LeRoy Clausen because I know he will get as use of it as I did. My ability to keep busy I will to Walter Bloom.

I, Bruce Allan "Snelse" Nelson will my love of Eisenhower to Maurice Keyport so the Republican party will not die out altogether. To Lawrence Hegge I will my gift of oratory.

I, Darlene Mae "Dar" Nielsen, will my quiet Saturday nights to Harriet Molgaard. To Sonja Nielsen go my regular appearances in band and choir.

I, Maynard Roy Nolan, will my hat to any Junior boy who will have it. To Leo Jensen goes my Hollywood muffler so there will be someone to make some noise at noonhour.

I, Joann Hilma "Jo" Paulsen, will my telephone number to any Junior boy who wants it. To Isabella Walker I will my ability to be a substitute grade teacher because I hear there's a shortage of them.

I, Karla Jeannette "Pete" Petersen, will my ability to snap my gum to Shirley Lundwall in hopes she will irritate her classmates as much as I have.

I, Imogene Ethel Pleasner, will my ability to be the first to get my lunch even though I was the last in the line.

I, Myrtle Lorraine "Myrt" Sagvold, will my catchy giggle to Clara Hedin in hopes she will brighten up many a dull moment.

I, Laverne Harriet "Dubby" Sparks, will my even temper to Cecelia Ingemansen to make the most of it.

I, Dean Everett "Runt" Strandkov, will my ability to get somewhere and get there in a hurry to Jerry Sexton. My agreeable disposition I will to Norbert Wermerskirchen.

With a solution of sodium floride streaming down our rosy cheeks, we the Class of '53 do solemnly will this bit of nonsense to the coming seniors so they may benefit to the greatest extent of their ability from what we have bequeathed and conferred upon them.

Class Prophecy

In search of interesting material for my diary, which, I am sure will make autobiographical history, and quite probably be a best seller or Pulitzer prize winner (after all, didn't Churchills?) I decided to look up the Class of '53 and see what happened to them after they left Askov Hi. I climbed into my cannon, and my dear friend, Ignatz Scavitski, started me off.

After landing in Askov, I decided the best place to look for news would be in the newspaper office, so I went there first. I was pleased to see that the Askov American is still flourishing, mainly through the efforts of the editor, Audrey Johnson. She said after putting out the Pine Knot, the American was mere child's play.

Henry Larsen stayed close to home too, and became manager of the Pine Co-op Oil Association.

Next I headed toward the Ferndale Nursery and found Gini, better known these days as "mommy." Seemed she had set up a bowling alley in the nursery and has hopes of raising some professionals.

Gini told me where to find George Clegg. He has half of Askov employed in his water pistol factory which has become the largest of its kind in the world.

As I was heading back towards main street we saw Lorraine Lund heading in our direction, and wearing a mink coat. Must be nice to have control of the town's money!

I also saw Bruce walking down the street wearing a very original creation on his head. He explained that it was his latest invention, a bullet proof, acid proof, (in other words, indestructable) hat.

Before I left my home territory, I decided I'd better take a trip up north. In Duquette I found Doris and her husband living on a farm. They had a lovely family and as Doris proudly told me, their motto is "Cheaper By The Dozen."

Traveling east we saw a huge racing track. A huge sign hit my eye, "Sideburns Nolan's Speedway."

Through his friend, Senator Wallace Martinek, his suggestion for a law prohibiting mufflers on cars was passed.

On my way to visit the honorable Senator, we stopped to see a Laker game. They've won top honors under their coach, Winston Gross.

I had read about Karla in the papers when she got her B.A., M.A., M.S., B.T., T.K., and became honorary Dean of the University. So where do you think I found her? In Dayton - she was chief perfume seller.

As long as Ignatz Scavitski wasn't there to shoot me off, I had to rely on my unicycle to get me to New York. While listening to my special unicycle's supersonic radio I was surprised to find the news commentator was a woman, especially when they mentioned the name Darlene Ball. She is now America's foremost newscaster.

A soothing, mellow voice sang to me next. Lorraine Knapp now has her own two-hour program. They've even named a breakfast food after her.

I stopped in at the interplanetary telephone office to call my dear friend, Ignatz. At the atomic powered switchboard sat our "number-please" gal, Darlene Nielsen.

While I was visiting with Darlene, who should come in but Warren, "the friendly milkman." He just wanted to know how many bottles he should leave milk, that is.

In an ultra-modern office I found Joyce Lunde, who has become famous for her book, "How to Tame Teachers." Incidentally, she is also president of the Old Maids Union. She told me where I could find Myrt and Joann.

Myrtle and Joann are very happy. They have finally convinced the Pessimists Club it is much better to laugh and be merry.

I was looking for some of my former teachers at Sing Sing, but I apparently just missed them. I had a long talk with the warden though, who happened to be Dean Strandskov.

I had heard about a wonderful hotel down in San Antone, and on a hunch I took a trip down there hoping to meet someone from Askov. Who do you suppose I found? — No one. My hunches never were much good. I picked up my shattered self confidence and headed my unicycle toward sunny California.

In Hollywood I thought I needed a little rest from my travels, so I attended the world's premiere of "Kill 'Em Laughing." The star was no other than Lois Fraser. Since she came to town Red Skelton has retired to the Home for Aged Actors.

I met Imogene there too, she has a good job designing the costumes for Lois' pictures. It's really exciting. Lois was a penguin in her last picture.

Walking down Sunset Boulevard I was stopped by a lady with a scissors in her hand. It seems she wanted to give a demonstration of the work done by the beauty operator, Miss Sparks. Since I was an old friend she gave me a free treatment.

Feeling quite proud of myself for having located each member of the Class of '53, I was ready to return home and relate my experiences to Ignatz. I think I shall give her my unicycle as reward for getting me off to such a good start.

Basketball

The 1953-1953 Basketball team with the return of only two letterman was destined to take beatings by every club in the Sub-district. At times during the season the Danes showed that they have potential but the lack of experience worked against them and they were able to win only two games during the regular season.

The best game of the year was an overtime thriller with third place Barnum. We lost 47 to 46.

With all members of the team back next year we can expect to see the Danes fighting for first place.
